

Tzu Chi medical humanity

What is Tzu Chi medical humanity?

Demonstration of Tzu Chi humanity

Impeccable appearances and uniform

Sincere smiles

Friendly greetings

Caring eye sights

Receptive body language

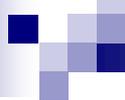

Mindful attitude

Ability to take charge

Tzu Chi spirit

- Sincerity, right view, trustworthiness, honesty
- Kindness – unconditional kindness, patient centered approach
- Compassion – unlimited compassion, to those we do not even know
- Joyfulness – doing it willingly, accepting the consequences as they are
- Selfless giving – expecting nothing in return

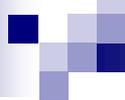

Realizing medical humanity- guarding life and health with love

- Be grateful – of the demo of impermanence: recognize, appreciate and cultivate more blessings
- Be respectful – treat every patient respectfully and equally
- Be loving – love every patient selflessly expecting nothing in return

Reminders for medical volunteer

- Impeccable uniforms
- Form marching lanes when we walk
- Vegetarian meals in Tzu Chi uniforms, bring your own environmental utensils
- Pay for one's own r&b, meals, transportation
- Record and share events
- Understand one's own role and responsibilities

...medical related

- Safety practices
- Understand one's role and responsibilities
- Strict compliance to HIPPA
- Do not make any recommendations unless you are a professional
- Stick to one's assigned role and be receptive to changes from the leaders
- Do not change workflow on your own; share ideas for improvement w/coordinator

- Through the silent demonstration of our humanity, there will be more people joining Tzu Chi
- Selfless contribution leads to true happiness 😊
- Because of your participation, we make our world a better place 😊 😊
- Let's walk in this Bodhisattva's path together 😊 😊 😊
- Thank you for being here!